Press Images

Terms & Conditions

For the purpose of press coverage on the current exhibition or event, high-res press images of the exhibited artworks as well as images of the exhibition space and portraits of the collector are available for free upon request.

The press images are only approved for one-time usage in features and reviews about the collection or current special exhibitions at the G2 Kunststhalte. Images can not be passed on for use by third parties.

Please make sure, that photographs after artworks published on line do not exceed the maximum size of 768 x 512 Pixel or 72 dpi as imposed by the German author's and image rights agency VG Bild-Kunst. According to the rules of VG Bild-Kunst, reproductions of artworks related to special exhibitions must be reproduced completely (not in detail) and deleted from electronic storage no later than 6 weeks after exhibition ending.

For any use or distribution outside current press coverage and for commercial purposes you are obliged to obtain all necessary rights from the applicable right holder (e.g. artists or VG Bild-Kunst). For further information concerning the copyright please contact our press & communication office. We are happy to assist you and to provide all necessary information.

Please use specified captions and credit lines for every image. The caption of installation views must contain the name of the exhibiting institution and the exhibition title. Reproductions of artworks must carry the following information: artist name, title of the artwork, date, and all credit and copyright information as supplied with the image. Technical details and measurements are optional information. The following link must be included whenever possible: "For further information please visit www.g2-leipzig.de"

Please send us (digital) copies of any review or article once it is published. Thank you!
